While Guardians of the Galaxy takes place in a science fiction setting, this crew of rogues and misfits figuring out how to work together to save the galaxy, felt like a great RPG campaign unfolding. Trying to create super hero player characters for D&D has its flaws (but they're still fun to build like these Avengers). Quill and his crew have few traditional "super" powers and are actually much closer to a bunch of mid level D&D characters running around creating trouble before saving ...
